BRIEF HISTORY OF AYURVEDIC & UNANI TIBBIA COLLEGE

The Ayurvedic & Unani Tibbia College popularly known as Tibbia College, is a premier institution in the Country. Its uniqueness lies in the fact that it is the only institution in the country to offer education and training in two ancient systems of Medicine, viz. Ayurvedic and Unani under one roof. It was founded under the name of 'Madrsa Tibbia' by Haziq-UI-Mulk Hakim Abdul Majeed Khan Saheb (1863-1901) in 1889 in the walled city of Delhi under a society known as Anjuman-e-Tibbia. After passing away of Hakim Abdul Majeed Khan his brother Masih-ul-Mulk Hakim Ajmal Khan Saheb (1863-1927) took over the institution and raised it upto the level of a model institution. With great personal efforts of Hakim Ajmal Khan, the present site extending over an area of about 33.5 acres was acquired. The foundation stone of the institution was laid by H.E. Lord Hardinge, the then Viceroy of India on 29th March 1916.

It took 5 years to construct various buildings for Lecture Theatres, Laboratories, Hospital Pharmacies, Hostel, Offices and Staff Quarters. The buildings are fusion of architecture style vogue at that time like Classical, Colonial, Mughal and Indian.

The institution was inaugurated by Mahatma Gandhi (1869-1948) on 13th February 1921. Besides the College and Hospital, Hindustani Dawakhana and Ayurvedic Rasayanashala were also set up for manufacturing of Unani and Ayurvedic Medicines.

In order to ensure proper management of the college, the Tibbia College Act 1952 was passed by the Delhi Legislative Assembly. This act now has been repealed and a new act known as Delhi Tibbia College (Takeover) Act 1998, has been passed and enforced by the Government of N.C.T. of Delhi w.e.f. 1st May 1998. The College is affiliated to the University of Delhi since 1973.

On the completion of 75 years of its existence, the College celebrated the Platinum Jubilee on 13th February 1996 and First Prize under the DDA Urban Heritage Award 1994 was given to the college by the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor of Delhi on 13th February 1996.

Besides running Under-Graduate (BAMS/BUMS) Courses, the institution is also conducting Post-Graduate Courses in Moalejat of Unani Medicine.
